Re MUR 6025 (Marsha Blackburn for Congress)

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Marsha Blackburn for Congress, Inc. and Ms. Tea Hoffmann, Treasurer (collectively "the committee"), through counsel, hereby responds to the complaint filed against it by Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington ("CREW"). The CREW complaint is duplicative of the committee's April 22, 2008 substantive submission to the Commission. In it, the committee set forth the findings of FEC Financial, Inc., the company that conducted the review and reconciliation of the committee's books, which led the committee to amend its reports and take other remedial steps to avoid repeating the administrative mistakes it made during the nascent stage of its first congressional campaign.

It would consequently be a waste of the Commission's resources to devote time and attention to this largely carbon copy complaint. As the committee stated in its voluntary submission, it has provided the Commission with information sufficient for it to evaluate the measures taken to correct its early deficiencies and it intends to cooperate with the FEC's inquiries into this matter. Again, the committee looks forward to working with the Commission to resolve this matter.

Sincerely,

William J. McGinley
